

DID YOU KNOW?

Moray eels are not related to snakes.
They are in fact a true fish.

They have 2 sets of jaws to help them
catch and eat their prey.

They are an ambush predator, meaning that they often hide and wait for their prey to come close to them.

Australian Government
Great Barrier Reef
Marine Park Authority

reefHQ
Great Barrier Reef
AQUARIUM